

29 In an experiment, a cell was set up to obtain pure nickel from a nickel-silver alloy.

Which of the following statements is correct?

- A Electrode Y is the nickel-silver alloy.
- B The concentration of the electrolyte must be 1 mol dm^{-3} .
- C The electrolyte may be replaced with sodium sulfate solution.
- D The mass of the cathode changes by the same mass as the anode.