

- 26 The small hive beetle, which invades colonies of the honeybee, identifies these colonies by detecting the bees' own alarm signal, the pheromone 3-methylbutyl ethanoate.

How may this ester be made in the laboratory?

