

- 20 Compound Q is a resveratrol derivative that is being explored for its role in neurodegenerative diseases like Parkinson's.

When treated with aqueous bromine, what is the maximum number of bromine atoms that can be incorporated into a molecule of compound Q?

A 5

B 6

C 7

D 8