

21 Nickel is used as a catalyst for the industrial hydrogenation of alkenes.

Which statement could be correct?

- A The H–H bond is weakened when H₂ is adsorbed by nickel.
- B Nickel adsorbs hydrogen molecules which raises the activation energy.
- C Nickel increases the reaction rate by desorbing alkene molecules.
- D When more nickel is used, ΔH becomes more exothermic.