

- 12 Chlorine reacts with aqueous potassium iodide as shown.

Which statement explains why this reaction occurs?

- A The chloride ion is a stronger reducing agent than the iodide ion.
- B Chlorine is more soluble in water than iodine.
- C Chlorine is a stronger oxidising agent than iodine.
- D The iodide ion gains an electron when it forms iodine.