

5 Which two pieces of information would enable you to calculate the relative molecular mass of a compound?

- A the empirical formula and the relative atomic masses of the elements in the compound
- B the empirical formula and the relative isotopic masses of the atoms in the compound
- C the molecular formula and the relative atomic masses of the elements in the compound
- D the molecular formula and the relative isotopic masses of the atoms in the compound